Faculty Awards and Prizes

Working copy as of December 7th, 2023

Guide on the awards and prizes nomination process.

The aim is to instill a culture of recognition within the Queen's research community.

Roles and Responsibilities of the University, Faculty, Department, Researcher

- 1. University (VPR: Vice-Principal Research)
  - Coordinating nominations for successful provincial, national, international research prizes and awards.
  - Oversee nomination process for University-led internal awards and prizes (e.g., Prize for Excellence in Research for Outstanding Emerging Researchers)
  - Best Practice: Promote research on Queen's Featured Stories.
- 2. Faculty (FAS: Faculty of Arts and Science)

 $\text{-com} \textbf{Paraphanana} \text{-tripons} \textbf{-sect} w \text{-tripons} w \text{-tripons} \textbf{-sect} w \text{-tripons} w \text{-tripons} \textbf{-sect} w \text{-tripons} w \text{-tripons$

x Propose on the control of the cont

Applying for Awards and Prizes

Ideal Review and upda

Operating

Sessions and Tools to Improve your Award and Prize Portfolio

What is your story? You Got Googled!

Adrian Kelly, Research Projects Advisor

Top ideas to consider when developing your research story:

- 1. Get your story on paper not just in your head.
- 2. One-sentence Lead
  - a. Position

Queen's Research Discovery Network (QRDN)

The Queen's Research Discovery Network (QRDN) is a gateway for discovery of Queen's