Finding and Sanction

The course(s) in this appeal (if applicable) include:

The grounds that I am submitting for this appeal are:

The decision maker whose decision is being appealed failed to act in accordance with the rules of procedural fairness. A breach of procedural fairness includes failing to:

permit a student to be heard by an unbiased decision maker;

follow applicable rules, regulations, or University policy, in a way that adversely affected a student's right to a fair process;

make a reasonable decision. A "reasonable" decision is one that is rational and based on evidence, thought out and supported by facts and logical inferences from findings of fact.

A student requires sufficient grounds for their appeal to be heard by the Academic Integrity and Conduct Panel to explain the grounds you are appealing and the rationale for those
