

partnering with external organizations at the local, national and international levels without jeopardizing times-to-completion.

Summary of the Reviewer's Recommendations with the Program's Responses

Affiliates of the Program

The review team recommended that the steering committee reconsider how faculty are accepted and listed as affiliates and establish a more formal application process with more details about

