Rosen Lectureship

Annual Income $5,069.56 (Received May 1, 2009)

The Rosen Committee includes community and University members, in keeping with our mandate to present an annual lecture of interest to both the Queen's and Kingston communities on a topic related to Jews and/or Judaism in the broadest sense. This year (2008-9) marks 21 years since the lecture series began. We were able to hold two lectures in 2008, one prior to July 1 (by Samuel Heilman) and reported on in my 2008 report.

On November 11, 2008, Professor Joel Sokolsky, newly appointed Principal of RMC spoke to a crowd that overflowed Policy Studies 202 and included people from Queen's, RMC and the Kingston community. His topic, "The US, Israel and the west, a 21st century assessment" was timely, controversial, yet delivered in a remarkably clear and non-partisan manner. As always, the Rosen family hosted a dinner after the lecture where 70 invitees had the opportunity to discuss the lecture amongst themselves and with Prof. Sokolsky.

We have invited Dr. Daniel Woolf, incoming Principal of Queen's, to be this year's Rosen lecturer. He has agreed to do this in the fall of 2009.

The Committee's budget is balanced at present but will not allow for the sponsoring of several lectures per year that we managed over the last 3 years. After 5 years as Chair of the Rosen Lecture Committee I will now return to being a member of the committee and the Chair will be assumed by Sarah Berger, a law student at Queen's. This is the first time the committee Chair has been a student and we are excited and hopeful that someone with Sarah's enthusiasm and extensive contacts within the student body will strengthen our links to them. [Respectfully submitted by Susan Phillips MD, MSc, CCFP, Faculty of Health Sciences and Chair of the Rosen Committee]

Respectfully submitted
